

SUBIECTELE PENTRU RESTANTELE LA LIMBA ENGLEZA

1. Write a short essay (3 pages long) about a memorable half-historical character as depicted in a play, a film, a story, a novel, a painting or a photo. Show how fact and fiction combine in this haunting portrait. (9 + 1p)
2. Write a short essay (3 pages long) about art as mimesis – whether in literature or in the visual arts. Focus on the personality of your favorite artist alive. Do mask and costume still matter as artistic/historical reference points nowadays? (9+1p)
3. Would you still study to become an artist if you were rich? Write a short essay accounting for the use of hard study for an artist, whether rich or poor. Give your best three arguments to account for your own view. (9+1p)
4. The quid-pro-quo has survived as the main dramatic trick in the arts of portrayal ever since year dot. Illustrate this necessary dramatic strategy by your own three examples, whether fact or fiction, in an essay (3 pages long). (9+1p)
5. Could the notion of art for art's sake be revived today? Give an answer relying on three arguments, whether for or against this possibility. Your essay should be 3 pages long. (9+1p)
6. There is nothing new under the sun – and each work of art may provide an echo of other works of art, whether classic or contemporary. In story-telling this is called intertextuality. Can you think of an example from a favorite film, too? Write a short essay about it – up to three pages long. (9+1p)
